Hi all,

Thank you once again for the overwhelming response at the ACM, good things do happen to those who are patient and wait.

The Saarang application portal is now live, and application questionnaires for all open positions, the contact details of this year's and last year's team are now available on it.

You can also submit your applications at the same portal and don't need to mail it to anyone in particular. (A shout-out to our versatile and talented Webops core, the best in the business, as Saarang always gets)

Please do visit the portal at apps.saarang.org

Thanks and regards
Srikanth and Krishna
